

Echoes of empire resound in present-day politics, social orders, languages and cultures. This symposium offers perspectives on the topic from historical, linguistic and cultural studies.

With contributions by:

Berny SÈBE
Associate Professor in Colonial and Postcolonial Studies, University of Birmingham, United Kingdom

Onookome OKOME
Professor at the Department of English and Film Studies, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Canada

Christian MAIR
Professor of English Linguistics, English Department, University of Freiburg

Barbara KORTE
Professor of English Literature, English Department, University of Freiburg

Sophie BANTLE
Research Associate at the English Department, University of Freiburg

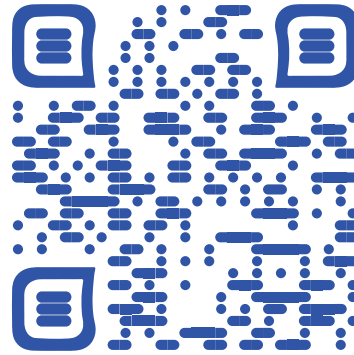

Location

Max-Kade-Auditorium 1
Bertoldstraße 17
79098 Freiburg im Breisgau

Please consult the map on the inside!

Organisation

Prof. Dr. Barbara KORTE
Englisches Seminar, Universität Freiburg

Contact

DFG Research Training Group 2571
“Empires: Dynamic Change, Temporality and Post-Imperial Orders”

Platz der Universität 3
79085 Freiburg im Breisgau

www.grk2571.uni-freiburg.de kontakt@grk2571.uni-freiburg.de +49 761 203-5453

universität freiburg

Funded by DFG Deutsche
Forschungsgemeinschaft
German Research Foundation

EMPIRES GRK2571

Dynamic Transformation
Temporality and Postimperial Orders

Symposium "Echoes of Empire"

July 13th
2023
2-6 pm

Echoes of Empire

- 14:00
–
14:05 Introduction – Barbara KORTE
- 14:05
–
14:45 Rethinking the Coloniser after the End of Empire: The Impact of Decolonisation in the Metropoles – Berny SÈBE
- 14:45
–
15:25 Reading Opposition to Empire in Africa and the Black Diaspora: Fanon, Aimé Césaire and Chinua Achebe – Onookome OKOME
- 15:25
–
15:45 ☕ Coffee Break
- 15:45
–
16:15 A Global Lingua Franca in a Postcolonial World: World English Paradoxes in the 21st Century – Christian MAIR
- 16:15
–
16:45 The British Empire in Contemporary British Popular Culture – Barbara KORTE / Sophie BANTLE
- 16:45
–
17:00 Final Discussion
- 17:00
–
18:00 Reception

