

7th International Conference of the English Department
University of Belgrade – Faculty of Philology
Belgrade, Serbia

English Language and Literature Studies: Modern Perspectives and Beyond
October 21-22, 2023

First Call for Papers

The English Department at the Faculty of Philology is pleased to announce its seventh international conference on English language, literature and culture studies. The aim of this event is to promote an exchange of ideas across different areas and theoretical frameworks of English linguistics and anglophone literary/cultural studies throughout a broad academic community. We invite both traditional and modern methodological approaches to English studies, as well as comparative research paradigms.

Proposals for papers and posters addressing diverse issues within the very broad theme of the conference, English Language, Literature and Culture Studies, will be considered for inclusion in the conference programme in the following fields of study:

- Theoretical Linguistics
- Applied Linguistics and ESL/EFL Language Teaching
- Literature Studies
- Culture Studies
- Translation/Interpreting Studies

THE LIST OF PLENARY SPEAKERS WILL INCLUDE:

- István Kecskés (Distinguished Professor of the State University of New York, USA)
- Alison Mackey (Georgetown University, USA)
- Elizabeth Archibald (Durham University, UK)
- Michael McAteer (Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Budapest, Hungary)

The official language of the conference is English.

Each paper will be allotted 20 minutes (15 minutes for presentation and 5 minutes for discussion).
